Chief Sinclair of the police department arrested an unknown on Depot square this morning and commandeered an automobile to take the man to police headquarters.

Real table decorations from the sunny slopes of Italy are to grace the board at the annual banquet of the Italian Athletic club, which is to be held in Clan Gordon hall on the evening of Friday, Dec. 10, according to arrangements made by the committee. Covers are to be laid for 200 guests, and an after-dinner program will be followed by a speechmaking.

The attention of the followers of basketball is directed to the composite schedule of the recently formed high school league, of which Spaulding high school is part, as printed on another page of to-day's issue. There are eight teams in the league, and the contests will begin early in January. It is suggested that for purposes of reference the schedule as printed to-day be preserved.

Word was received in the city yesterday of the death of Mrs. Emily H. Mears at the home of Judge L. P. Slack in St. Johnsbury. Mrs. Mears was the widow of W. H. H. Mears, and a former resident of Marshfield. Two relatives, a niece, Mrs. C. B. Gladding, and a nephew, P. M. Cutler, reside in this city. Death was due to chronic nephritis. Funeral services will be held at the home of L. P. Slack in St. Johnsbury at 12:30 to-morrow.

Efforts are being made by the committee in charge of the Washington County Veterans' association banquet to secure the services of Capt. Ira L. Reeves, president of Norwich university, as the principal speaker at the annual banquet to be given in Hotel Barre next Monday evening. Mr. Reeves has the invitation under consideration and will likely accept, it is said. The speechmaking will follow directly the banquet, which is to be served at 8 o'clock.

The following item from the state correspondence of The Independent will be of interest in stone circles: "Vermont: It was an ill wind that recently wrecked hundreds of slate roofs in cities and towns along the coast of the gulf of Mexico, but it blew a prodigious volume of business to the Vermont slate quarries. Practically every yard in the state has been cleaned out in response to the hurry orders from the wind-swept districts, and the quarries are all busy, trying to supply the demand and restock the yards."

Taking advantage of the opportunity offered by the new gymnasium in the Spaulding annex, the high school is to give a regular course in physical culture during the winter months. It is planned to hold two classes a week for the girls and as many for the boys. The course is optional, but, judging from the fact that nearly 100 girls and nearly as many boys have signed their intention of taking it, it is apparent that such a course is going to be appreciated. Coach Brown has charge of the course and intends to conduct it on the lines prescribed in the Butte manual of military calisthenics.
